HUSKINSON & BROWN v. WOLF

Issues ordered limited

Review was granted in this case on July 24, 2002, and further action was deferred pending consideration and disposition of related issues in Chambers v. Kay, or pending further order of the court. This court's decision in Chambers is now final ((2002) 29 Cal.4th 142.) Respondent is now ordered to serve and file, on or before February 21, 2003, a Brief on the Merits. Additional briefing is to be served and filed in a timely fashion. (See rule 29.1, formerly rule 29.3, Cal. Rules of Court.). The issue to be briefed and argued shall be limited to whether, in the absence of written client consent to an agreement between law firms to divide attorney fees (see Rules Prof. Conduct, rule 2-200), a law firm that is not otherwise entitled to share in such fees may nonetheless recover from the other law firm in quantum meruit for the reasonable value of services it rendered on behalf of the client.

S108099

B123992 Second Appellate District,
Division Four

B122178

WHITE v. DAVIS

Additional issues ordered

The parties are directed to file supplemental briefs addressing the following issue: Assuming, solely for purposes of this question, that the various provisions of state law relied upon by the public employee organizations do not provide a basis upon which the Controller may pay a state employee his or her full and regular salary during a budget impasse, and assuming further, again solely for purposes of this question, that the state could satisfy the requirements imposed by the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) simply by timely paying an employee covered by that act who does not work overtime a sum based on the minimum wage rate for hours worked, does the Controller nonetheless have the authority to pay such a covered employee his or her full and regular salary during a budget impasse if the Controller determines (1) that in light of the logistics entailed in obtaining the data and making the adjustments that would be required to pay such employees only the minimum sum required by the FLSA, it would be administratively infeasible for the state to make such adjustments within the time necessary to ensure the prompt payment of wages required by the FLSA, or, alternatively, (2) that in view of the additional administrative expense that would be entailed in making the necessary adjustments in a timely fashion, it would be less costly for the state to comply with the requirements of the FLSA simply by paying the full and regular salaries of state employees covered by that legislation? The parties shall file simultaneous supplemental letter briefs on this issue on or before February 6, 2003, and any party may file a reply letter brief on or before February 11, 2003.

PEOPLE v. STANISTREET

The court construes appellants' in propria persona filings of October 18, 2002, and December 20, 2002, as renewed motions for order relieving counsel. The motions are denied. Because appellants are represented by counsel, other motions, petitions, or requests in those filings are not properly before the court. (People v. Clark (1992) 3 Cal.4th 41, 173. The opinion is final forthwith.

S106745GUTIERREZ (ISAAC) ON H.C.
Order filed

The request of the Attorney General, by letter dated November 20, 2002, for copies of specified pages of the reporter's transcript in People v. Isaac Gutierrez, Jr., No. S018634, is granted. The clerk is directed to provide the Attorney General and petitioner with a copy of those portions of the reporter's transcript of oral proceedings held on November 7, 1989 (5 R.T. 770A-780A), and December 13, 1989 (7 R.T. 1196-1205). On the court's own motion, the clerk is directed to unseal the original of the portions of the reporter's transcript referred to above.
